COMPUTER GRAPHICS DISPLAY OPENS SUNDAY

"SCENES FROM THE NEW CONTINENT", the Computer
Graphics exhibition opening
Sunday, February 11 in

Reed Hall Room 160, will present the newest ideas and innovations in this visually exciting field. The artists are all graduate students at The Advanced Computer Center for Art and Design on the campus of The Ohio State University in Columbus. The show will continue through Sunday March 3. Gallery hours will be Sundays, February 11, 18, 25, and March 3 from 2-4 and at various hours during the week (flyers with the Gallery Hours are posted in each building.) On Thursday, February 22 two of the exhibiting artists, Netanya Vishnezski and Neal McDonald, will take us with them as we travel to the edge of the technology in, "EXPLORING THE DIGITAL FRONTIER." This "Gallery Talk" will be a combination of discussion and video presentation. There will be time for questions and answers after the program.

NOMINATE YOUR FAVORITE PROF

Each year the Student Senate sponsors the DISTINGUISHED TEACHING AWARD given at the end of Spring quarter to one OSU and one LTC full time professor. The $500 awards are presented to the faculty whom the students have deemed outstanding. Pick up a nomination form in the Student Activities Office, GA066 and nominate the professor who has made a difference in your life. A short statement about your reasons for nominating this person is required.

TROMBONIST DAVID VINING IN CONCERT TUESDAY

Trombonist David Vining will be heard in a solo recital on Tuesday, February 6 at noon in Reed Hall Room 160. He will be accompanied by talented local pianist Barbara Young. Mr. Vining toured the country as a trombonist with the nationally acclaimed group The Chestnut Brass. He may be heard on their recordings for the Crystal, Musical Heritage and Newport Classics labels performing on historical brass instruments such as the sacbut, ophicliede and saxhorn. Vining, a trombone professor at the University of Kansas, is an accomplished performer and teacher who has garnered national and international recognitions. His awards include winner of the American Waterways Wind Orchestra Trombone Solo Competition; winner of the International Trombone Association's Frank Smith Scholarship; second prize, Toulon International Solo Competition; and a finalist in the Munich International Solo Competition. Mr. Vining has performed orchestrally with the Philadelphia Orchestra, Philly Pops Orchestra, the Pennsylvania Ballet, Savannah Symphony, and the Asheville (N.C.) Symphony. Mr. Vining holds degrees from the Florida State University and Bowling Green State University and is a former faculty member of Temple University's College of Music and Bowling Green State University.
